World No Tobacco Day 2022

PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

Protect the environment

PAMS Tackling Indigenous Smoking (TIS) Program invites students from:

- Cotton Creek (Parnngurr)
- Jigalong
- Kunawarritji (Well 33)
- Punmu

To take beautiful photos showcasing the beauty of their community and landscapes; Ngurra/Jukurrpa.

The Puyu Paki photography competition focuses on the World No Tobacco Day theme for 2022 is "Protect the environment."

Dates
The competition commences:
Monday 14th February 2022
and closes Friday 25th March 2022.

Image requirements

- All entries must be submitted in portrait orientation.
- The image must be a High Resolution JPEG or JPG and be at least 2500px on the longest side and must not exceed 10mb.
- Do not put any identifying branding on the images. This is to allow the images to be judged anonymously.
- All images must be named as the title of the image and include the entrants name, and what the image is of.

Judging
The entries will judged by PAMS staff and other Stakeholders between the 4th to the 8th April 2022.

Prizes
Prizes will be awarded to each winner of each community.

Entries to be emailed to pams.tis1@puntukurnu.com
Subject line titled 'World No Tobacco Day Photography Competition

www.puntukurnu.com.au

PUYU PAKI Don't Smoke - Give it Up!

PAMS Puntukurnu Aboriginal Medical Service

TACKLING INDIGENOUS SMOKING